

Technical Perspectives on Analyst's Rating Changes

CNQR - case study
08-24-2008

CNQR – The TPARC report for October 5, 2007 called attention to the strong up trending channel and the excellent long-term performance by CQNR. That good performance has continued and the stock is up almost 50% in a bad market from the date of the TPARC report. The stock has remained consistently above the 45-degree Bullish Support Line during this move up.
