

Technical Perspectives on Analyst's Rating Changes

MTH – case study
02-09-2008

MTH – The TPARC report called attention to the major top that had formed and that the stock was trending down. This downtrend persisted and a serious loss was experienced as the stock fell from over $60 per share to under $15. The relative performance remained below the 45-degree Bearish Resistance line throughout the entire decline.
